

Wylie Davidson

Keynote Speaker | Workplace Culture Specialist

"Wylie offers much more than just a safety message!"

Wylie Davidson is an International motivational speaker, influencer, and workplace culture specialist from Buffalo New York. His ability to energize audiences while getting them to rethink their own personal safety values has been an effective resource with hundreds of companies at facilities all over the US, Canada, and Mexico. His unique ability to add fun and humor to a safety message has made him a desired speaker with companies looking to reset their own safety culture or to give a charge to an existing one.

"I have never had a speaker that I connected with as much as Wylie"

With over 10 years in the safety world, coupled with 20 years in management, working his way up from the start, he has seen both sides of what an effective safety culture looks like, and his insight resounds with his audience. Attendees find him both engaging and heartfelt, often referring to him as "one of us". From entry-level employee to C-Suite Executive, attendees walk away with a fresh sense of what safety means to them, as well as their co-workers and family, creating a stronger level of personal and professional "buy-in" to a safety culture.

"Your presentation resonated deeply across all levels of experience"

Wylie has been the Keynote or Featured presenter at numerous national and regional accounts that include: John Deere, Exxon-Mobil, Kellogg's, Georgia-Pacific, Anheuser-Busch and Toyota as well as numerous National and Regional conferences throughout the United States and Canada. He has visited and toured hundreds of manufacturing plants and job sites that include virtually every aspect of industry, construction, municipality, and utility.

"Our employees, at all levels, have been referencing the topics and ideas"

Spending the last 10 years traveling the country, helping companies create, grow, and sustain effective safety programs has made a tremendous impact on Wylie. Seeing firsthand the impact that a presentation can have on someone has been his driving force in continuing this journey.
